Official Form 206A/B

Schedule A/B: Assets - Real and Personal Property

12/15

Disclose all property, real and personal, which the debtor owns or in which the debtor has any other legal, equitable, or future interest. Include all property in which the debtor holds rights and powers exercisable for the debtor's own benefit. Also include assets and properties which have no book value, such as fully depreciated assets or assets that were not capitalized. In Schedule A/B, list any executory contracts or unexpired leases. Also list them on Schedule G: Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases (Official Form 206G).

Be as complete and accurate as possible. If more space is needed, attach a separate sheet to this form. At the top of any pages added, write the debtor's name and case number (if known). Also identify the form and line number to which the additional information applies. If an additional sheet is attached, include the amounts from the attachment in the total for the pertinent part.

For Part 1 through Part 11, list each asset under the appropriate category or attach separate supporting schedules, such as a fixed asset schedule or depreciation schedule, that gives the details for each asset in a particular category. List each asset only once. In valuing the debtor's interest, do not deduct the value of secured claims. See the instructions to understand the terms used in this form.

NOW THEREFORE, in consideration of the obligations of the Attorneys and the Client (collectively "the Parties") set forth herein, the Parties hereby agree as follows:

Article 1. The Attorneys' Duties

1.1 In addition to performing the duties set forth in Article 3.1, the Attorneys shall investigate and advise the Client regarding its Interests. The Client understands that the Bankruptcy Case may be complex, and that the Attorneys' investigation has just begun. Therefore, the Client also understands that discovery in the case and/or other future events may change the Attorneys' advice regarding its Interests, perhaps materially so. The Attorneys are not obligated to begin or to continue to prosecute or defend any claim that in their sole professional judgment is or becomes objectively or subjectively frivolous, can only be brought in bad faith, or whose continued prosecution comes to constitute bad faith, violates or comes to violate any rule or code of professional ethics, or has or comes to have so little chance of success on the merits that it is not reasonable to expect the Attorneys to continue to invest their time in the prosecution thereof.

1.2 The Attorneys are specifically under no obligation to prosecute or to defend any appeal by reason of this Retainer Agreement.

Article 2. The Attorneys' Authority To Act

2.1 In matters of professional responsibility, the Attorneys shall act in their own discretion as they deem proper under the applicable rules of court and the Illinois Code of Professional Responsibility and the Rules of any Court in which the case is prosecuted, and without any direction from the Client.

2.2 The Attorneys recognize that it is the Attorneys' general duty to carry out the directions of their principal, the Client, but the Client recognizes that their agents, the Attorneys, are possessed of special skills and training in legal matters beyond those of the Client. Therefore, in matters of general strategy, the Attorneys shall follow the general directions of the Clients where such direction does not impinge upon the Attorneys professional responsibilities in any or all matters, or the Attorneys' professional judgment in matters concerning which a full consultation with the Client is not practical.

2.3 Nothing herein shall be construed to limit the Attorneys' responsibilities under the Illinois Code of Professional Responsibility, but it is the Parties' desire that the provisions hereof be interpreted to the greatest extent possible to conform to said Illinois Code of Professional Responsibility.

Article 3. The Attorneys' Fees

3.1 The Client shall timely pay the Attorneys a flat fee in the sum of $5000.00 which includes all fees and costs. It is expressly understood that no case will be filed until the aforementioned fees are paid in full. The fees include consulting with the Clients to discuss the Client's financial condition and possible solutions; preparing, filing and amending their bankruptcy schedules and all documents required to be filed by the Bankruptcy Code; appearing at the Client's 341 Meeting of Creditors; negotiating reaffirmation agreements with the Client's secured creditors; provide the sections 342(b)(1), 527 and 521 notices which are attached hereto; and cooperating with the Trustee assigned to the case. This fee expressly does not include any obligation on the Attorneys to prosecute or defend any and/or all contested motions and/or any and all adversary proceedings ("Additional Services"), which may arise as a result of the Clients' bankruptcy case. Anything herein to the contrary, both the Attorneys and the Client will endeavor to be fair and reasonable with each other in all billing matters.

RKV

All retainers described herein, including all future retainers, are expressly agreed to be "advance payment retainers" as described in In re: Production Associates, Ltd. 264 B.R. 180 (Bkrtcy. N.D.Ill 2001) and Dowling v. Chicago Options Associates, Inc., 2007 WL 128879 (Ill.). The Attorneys will commingle the retainer and any future retainer immediately upon receipt with their general funds being obligated only to refund an amount equal to the unearned portion thereof, if any, promptly after the termination of the Attorney's services. Ordinarily, Client has the option to request that the retainer be considered a "security retainer" where Client continues to have an interest in the funds, but Client recognizes and agrees that the Attorneys would not undertake the representation on that basis. The Attorneys are obligated by the Dowling case to advise Client of the reason they would decline to represent Client on a security retainer basis, and that reason is the Attorneys do not desire even to potentially compete with the creditors of the Client on a security retainer basis.

3.2 Compensation will be paid to the Attorneys at their customary hourly rates for all Additional Services (including all para-professional staff) as they exist from time to time. The rates are currently $250 per hour for attorney's time, and $85 per hour for para-professionals. In addition, if for any reason the attorney-client relationship is terminated by either of the Parties, then upon such termination the Attorneys will prepare an accounting and forward the same to the Client and charge the Client on an hourly basis for all time expended by the Attorneys up until the time of termination, including the preparation of the accounting.

3.3 All costs for Additional Services will be charged to the Client, and include all expenses incurred, and disbursements made by the Attorneys on the Client's behalf in connection with this matter will be payable by the Client in addition to the professional fees. The Attorneys will generally bill the Client for such costs once a month unless the costs incurred are so insignificant as not to justify a billing. In the case of any cost the Attorneys deem exceptional in their sole discretion, the Attorneys may request payment in advance or payment directly from the Client to the provider.

3.4 The Client may object to any charge appearing on any bill rendered by the Attorneys. However, the Client will pay within one month of the date of any bill for any and all charges to which it does not specifically object. The Attorneys are always pleased to discuss their charges with the Client, but the Client agrees that any bill not objected to within one month of the date thereof shall constitute an "account stated" and no longer be subject to dispute. The reason for setting this deadline is to keep any objections (and the memories that underlie them for all the Parties) from becoming stale, and to encourage the Client to bring any billing controversies to the Attorneys' attention as soon as possible to foster a speedy resolution thereof.

Article 4. Contract Construction

4.1 This Agreement shall be construed under a rule of reasonableness at the time it was entered, examining any provision thereof with a mind that the Parties hereto were acting in good faith and without oppression, attempting to reach a fair and equitable means on which the Attorneys could pursue the Client's Interests for the Client

4.2 This Agreement shall be construed according to the laws of the State of Illinois and the Parties agree to submit to the jurisdiction of any State Court in the Circuit Court of Cook County.

4.3 Subject to any rule, procedure or court order that is adopted by the courts in this jurisdiction which are expressly incorporated by reference into this Agreement and made a part hereof, the Parties acknowledge that this Agreement embodies the full understanding of the Parties hereto and is a fully integrated agreement that may only be altered or amended by a writing signed by both Parties.

Article 5. Legal Advice Regarding This Agreement

5.1 The Attorneys are not representing the Client regarding their entering this Agreement, nor are they rendering any legal advice to the Client regarding same and that the Client represents that the Attorneys have advised the Client that they should retain their own independent legal opinion (meaning from legal counsel other than the Attorneys) regarding its entering this Agreement with the Attorneys, and that the Client have indeed obtained that independent legal advice or has knowingly waived their right to obtain such independent advice.

Article 6. General

6.1 Termination of this Agreement must be made in writing by sending notice to the Parties at their designated or last known address. To the extent required, upon termination, the Attorneys will apply to the court for an order authorizing the Attorneys' withdrawal from representation. The Attorneys will return any original documents to the Client. The remainder of the file shall be the Attorneys' work product and will be retained by the Attorneys for 6 years.

6.2 In addition to paying the attorney's fees and all other costs set forth in the Agreement; Client also agrees to carry out all of the Client's obligations pursuant to section 521 of the Bankruptcy Code; to provide full, honest and accurate disclosures of all the Client's assets, liabilities and financial information; to notify the Attorneys of any change or anticipated change in circumstances.

Article 7. Required Disclosures

7.1 Under the new law bankruptcy laws, you are required to take a Credit Counseling Course prior to the filing of your bankruptcy petition and a Financial Management Course prior to the discharge of your bankruptcy. If you fail to complete these courses your bankruptcy will be denied.

7.2 Section 527 of the Bankruptcy Code requires a debt relief agency to provide an assisted person with the following: A copy of the notice prepared by the clerk of the Bankruptcy Court, in accordance with the requirements of § 342(b), which you have been shown at your initial consultation and which contains a brief description of Chapters 7, 11, 12, and 13 and the general purpose, benefits, and costs of proceeding under each of those chapters; and the types of services available from credit counseling agencies; specifying that a person who knowingly and fraudulently conceals assets or makes a false oath or statement under penalty of perjury in connection with a case under this title shall be subject to fine, imprisonment, or both; and that all information supplied by a debtor in connection with a case under this title is subject to examination by the Attorney General.

7.3 All information that the assisted person is required to provide with a petition and thereafter during a case under this title is required to be complete, accurate, and truthful; all assets and all liabilities are required to be completely and accurately disclosed in the documents filed to commence the case, and the replacement value of each asset as defined in § 506 must be stated in those documents where requested after reasonable inquiry to establish such value; current monthly income, the amounts specified in section 707(b)(2), and, in a case under Chapter 13 of this title, disposable income (determined in accordance with § 707(b)(2)) are required to be stated after reasonable inquiry; and information that an assisted person provides during his or her case may be audited pursuant to this title, and failure to provide such information may result in dismissal of the case under this title or other sanction, including a criminal sanction.

7.4 If you decide to seek bankruptcy relief, you can represent yourself, you can hire an attorney to represent you, or you can get help in some localities from a bankruptcy petition preparer who is not an attorney. The law requires an attorney or bankruptcy petition preparer to give you a written contract specifying what the attorney or bankruptcy petition preparer will do for you and how much it will cost. Ask to see the contract before you hire anyone. The following information explains what must be done in a routine bankruptcy case to help you evaluate how much service you need. Before filing a bankruptcy case, either you or your attorney should analyze your eligibility for different forms of debt relief available under the Bankruptcy Code and decide which form of relief is most likely to be beneficial for you. Be sure you understand the relief you can obtain and its limitations. To file a bankruptcy case, documents must be prepared correctly and filed with the bankruptcy court. You will have to pay a filing fee to the bankruptcy court. Once your case starts, you must attend the required first meeting of creditors, where you may be questioned by a court official called a "trustee" and by creditors. If you choose to file a Chapter 7 case, you may be asked by a creditor to reaffirm a debt. You may want help deciding whether to do so. A creditor is not permitted to coerce you into reaffirming your debts. If you choose to file a Chapter 13 case, in which you repay your creditors what you can afford over 3 to 5 years, you may also want help preparing your Chapter 13 plan and with the confirmation hearing on your plan, which will be before a bankruptcy judge. If you select another type of relief under the Bankruptcy Code other than Chapter 7 or Chapter 13, you should consult someone familiar with that type of relief. Your bankruptcy case may also involve litigation. You are generally permitted to represent yourself in litigation in bankruptcy court, but only lawyers, not bankruptcy petition preparers, can give you legal advice.

7.5 To compile your income refer to recent paystubs accounting for all income. Review your monthly expenditures and make your best estimate on cash expenditures. If you are required to pass a "means test" because of your income, your estimated monthly expenses will be based upon IRS allowances based on the area in which you live. If your expenses exceed the allotted amounts, you may need to make adjustments accordingly. When you value your property, consider the prices for housing in your area, in newspapers for automobiles, and what you would pay for furniture and clothes at stores selling such goods. If you have an item of unique or special value, an appraisal may be necessary. When listing creditors, base their information on current bills. Some of your property is exempt and may be retained according to the exemptions that we have reviewed at your consultation. If a creditor has a lien on exempt property, the lien may be avoidable, or you may have to pay to keep the property.
